

CVWOC Privacy Statement

The data that the club collects is for the sole use of the club and will not be passed to third parties, it will allow the committee to keep you informed of club business. All data will be processed and stored on a computer according to the General Data Protection Regulations 2016. You can request the information that the club holds on you at any time from the membership secretary. On leaving the club any information held about you will be destroyed. The clubs Data Protection Policy can be found on our website.